

FEBRUARY 28th, 1814.

Read the first and second time and committed to a committee of the whole house to-morrow.

A Bill

Supplementary to an act, entitled "An act for the relief of the officers and soldiers who served in the late campaign on the Wabash."

1 Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of 2 the United States of America in congress assembled, That any 3 person or persons belonging to the army that served in the 4 late campaign on the Wabash, who may have had a horse or 5 horses wounded in the battle on the Wabash, shall be entitled 6 to and receive the value thereof: Provided, That the death of 7 such horse or horses shall have happened within ten days next 8 after the day on which the battle was fought, and shall be the 9 consequence of a wound received in the said battle: And pro-
10 vided further, That the proof of such death within the time limited, 11 and that the death was the consequence of a wound, shall be 12 by affidavit of the quartermaster of the corps to which the owner
13 may have belonged, or of two other credible witnesses.

1 Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the same proof of the 2 value of such horse or horses, shall be required under this act
3 as is required by the fourth section of the act to which this is a 4 supplement.
